READ — READ THIS PASSAGE CAREFULLY. YOU MAY READ IT TWICE.

Halloween is a fun day in October. We see many sight words all around us on Halloween. The word "the" is on signs that say "the haunted house." We read "and" on decorations that say "cats and bats." The word "to" appears on candy bags that say "go to get treats." We also see "a" on signs like "a spooky ghost" and "a black cat." When we go trick-or-treating, we read "come" on invitations. We see "look" on posters that say "look at the pumpkins." These sight words help us read Halloween words quickly. Learning sight words makes reading fun and easy. We practice these words every day at school and at home. Sight words are important for all readers. When Halloween comes, we can find these words everywhere around us.
