VOCABULARY

MAGNET — an object that pulls magnetic materials toward it

ATTRACT — to pull something toward you

REPEL — to push something away

POLES — the ends of a magnet where the force is strongest

FORCE — a push or pull that makes something move

METAL — a hard material that magnets can pull

PUSH — to apply force away from something

PULL — to apply force toward something

IRON — a metal that is attracted to magnets

CONTACT — when two objects touch each other
